

THE MOAA BRAND BOOK

INTRODUCTION

The Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) is an organization whose sole mission is to champion the well-being of the military community through advocacy and benefits tailored to military officers and their families. The MOAA Brand Book contains a set of standards and guidelines designed to advise all communications and promotional materials distributed by MOAA.

In the following pages you'll find information regarding the MOAA look and feel. You'll learn how, where, and when to use the logo. You'll find out who MOAA's members are, including a set of traits and values for each segment. With these brand guidelines, you'll grasp the essence of MOAA and discover the voice that guides its tone and personality.

MOAA LOGO STANDARDS

Here, you will find the guidelines detailing the correct usage of the MOAA logo, including color, sizing, and spacing. Furthermore, there are specific sets of logos that highlight MOAA benefits, products and services, and chapters.

The MOAA logo is an immediate representation of our brand. It is of the utmost importance that it be used as outlined in the following pages.

MOAA LOGO STANDARDS

Below is the primary logo for MOAA, which includes both the organization's abbreviated and full name, along with the MOAA shield and trademark symbol.

The logo should only be implemented using the provided file format, Illustrator EPS. This format is vector-based and allows for infinite scaling without degradation to its visual quality.

CLEAR SPACE

A minimum amount of clear space is required to ensure the legibility of the MOAA logo. This clear space is the area surrounding the logo that must be kept free of all text and graphic elements. The minimum clear area equals the height of the letters in the word MOAA.

MINIMUM SIZES

Consistent logo usage across all applications helps to reinforce the MOAA brand. The following rules for logo size apply to logo use in all communications: the minimum width for print is 1.25” and the minimum width for web is 175 pixels.

PRINT

WEB

VERTICAL LOGO

This version of the logo should be used when the logo is used at a size less than 1.25” for print and 175 pixels for digital. The vertical logo may also be used in other applications which require maximum impact. The following rules for logo size apply to logo use in all communications: the minimum width for print is .3125” and the minimum width for web is 40 pixels.

MOAA LOGO STANDARDS

CORRECT LOGO USAGE

The logo should be placed on uncluttered backgrounds and photos, so as to not impede the legibility and clarity of its appearance.

MOAA LOGO STANDARDS

INCORRECT LOGO USAGE

Strict limitations on use of the MOAA logo are necessary to preserve the integrity of the brand. The MOAA logo is a customized artwork so any alteration, apart from proportional scaling, is considered incorrect usage.

MOAA BRAND STANDARDS

The following brand standards are a set of guidelines to help MOAA and its affiliates communicate the look, feel, and representation of the organization. These standards have been put into place to ensure that MOAA’s message remains consistent across various media, distribution, and target audiences.

COLOR PALETTE

Only the specific colors shown here are approved for use. Mixing colors with any other color palettes is prohibited. The primary color palette is most representative of the MOAA brand. The secondary color palette should only be used as an accent color to the primary color palette where appropriate. Application of secondary colors with collateral is open for usage regardless of subject matter.

PHOTOGRAPHY STANDARDS

Appropriate photo selection is an essential component of the MOAA brand. Photos should be representative of the entire spectrum of MOAA members. The subjects should appear pleasant and confident. Choose photography that has a clear subject matter with an uncluttered background. Photos should be of high quality and a minimum of 300dpi for printed materials.

STUDIO PHOTOGRAPHY

LIFESTYLE PHOTOGRAPHY

Please refer to section 701 of title 18 of the U.S. code for rules about MOAA using/portraying uniforms, service insignia, or endorsements from active duty servicemembers in our marketing materials.

MOAA TAGLINE

MOAA's tagline, Never Stop Serving®, captures the spirit and personality of the association. The tagline may be used as a stand-alone element or in a body of text. Its placement within a body of text may fall anywhere within the structure of a sentence. The tagline should be used naturally and not forced. It may be written in either upper or lower case. Altering the language of MOAA's tagline is strictly prohibited.

NEVER STOP SERVING.®

MOAA CORPORATE STATIONERY

The basic stationery set consists of a letterhead, a #10 closed-face envelope, and a two-sided business card. Each piece features the MOAA logo and corporate signature with the tagline set apart as a separate element. This stationery should be employed as a set; mixing and matching elements with other stationery is not recommended.

POWERPOINT TEMPLATE

When creating a MOAA PowerPoint presentation, Lato is the font that should be used for all text. If Lato is unavailable on a user's device, Gill Sans should be used instead. When sending a PowerPoint presentation to someone outside of MOAA, it is always important to send the file as a PDF in case the recipient's device does not contain the required fonts.

MOAA BRAND STRATEGY

MOAA's brand strategy serves as an outline for all messaging and verbal communication distributed by MOAA. Here, you'll learn about MOAA's identity, its message, and its members.

MOAA BRAND STRATEGY

INSIGHT	Like MOAA, officers have a service mentality: their oath to support and defend never ends. They “have each others’ backs” and look out for everyone in their ranks.
PROMISE: Identifies what our audiences should expect from all interactions with our people, products, services, and organization.	We never stop serving military personnel and their families.
MISSION: Clearly and succinctly defines what we do best every single day; our purpose and value.	To advocate for our militia community and connect it to the nation we serve.
VISION: A vision statement requires courage. It describes the future—it is inspirational, aspirational, and energizing.	Promote and protect a strong national defense and lead our Nation to honor its commitments to all who serve.
TAGLINE: Why we matter.	NEVER STOP SERVING.®
PERSONALITY: What we’re like.	Driven and selfless.
VOICE: How we sound.	An officer (not a lobbyist).

MEMBERSHIP PROFILES

MOAA's members make up a diverse spectrum of audiences. Here, you'll find a guide to all eight of MOAA's membership profiles, including the unique characteristics of each demographic and the services that are relevant to that group.

20-30
[JR. OFFICER]
STARTER LIFE

MOAA NEVER STOPS SERVING TO GET THEIR LIVES OFF TO A GREAT START.

MARKERS:

Exciting “firsts” (marriage, baby, house), deployment, strains of war, high divorce rate, one-tour of duty/forced out due to draw downs, questioning military life as a career, allegiance to other Iraq and Afghanistan veterans, wired, media savvy, proactive, activists

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Military professionalism
- Transition services: résumé reviews and virtual job fairs
- Financial guidance and products
- Spousal professional development

31-45
[MID-GRADE OFFICER]
FAMILY LIFE

MOAA NEVER STOPS SERVING TO HELP MEET THE NEEDS OF THEIR FAMILY.

MARKERS:

Pragmatic, skeptical, more earning potential, “trading up” homes, saving (or not saving) for college and retirement, “sandwich generation,” possibly more deployment, injury, career instability or dissatisfaction, divorce, geo-bachelors, wired, possibly transitioning out of active duty to service in the National Guard or reserves

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Military professionalism
- Transition services including spouse programs
- Life insurance
- Guidance in using civilian insurance
- Interest-free loans and grants for children

46-59
[SR. OFFICER]
TRANSITIONAL LIFE

MOAA NEVER STOPS SERVING TO HELP THEM REFOCUS AND THRIVE.

MARKERS:

Second and non-military careers, reinventing themselves, mind/body wellness-focused, retirement concerns, benefits eroding, spouse in workforce

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Transition services including financial/benefits guidance
- Advocacy against retirement threats
- VA claims assistance
- Health insurance
- Interest-free loans and grants for children

60-70
[EARLY RETIREE]
RETIRED LIFE

MOAA NEVER STOPS SERVING TO HELP THEM RETIRE THE WAY THEY ENVISIONED.

MARKERS:

Original activists, idealistic, retiring later, stretching savings, downsizing, increasingly wired, illness prevention, caring for elderly parents

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Travel services
- Healthcare guidance: TRICARE to Medicare
- Healthcare advocacy
- Wealth planning

70+
[FULLY RETIRED]
HARD-WORKED LIFE

MOAA NEVER STOPS SERVING TO HONOR THEIR SERVICE AND KEEP THEM CONNECTED TO THEIR MILITARY FAMILY.

MARKERS:

Patriotic, fond memories, spouses/friends dying, depression, isolation, chronic health concerns, financial difficulties (esp. among widows)

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Access to grassroots advocacy efforts
- Camaraderie through local chapters
- Publications
- Support for spouses and families who have lost an officer

MOAA NEVER STOPS SERVING TO HONOR THEIR STEADFAST COMMITMENT.

MARKERS:

Uncertainty and fear about “what’s next” in term of spouse’s assignments and potential deployment; difficulty putting down roots in a community; different schools and routines for children; careers often put on hold; sacrifices made to support spouse; financial matters falls on their shoulders. In essence, spouses are serving the military alongside their servicemembers and want to be viewed and respected for their tremendous and selfless efforts.

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Advocacy to support military families
- Publications: State Report Card and Military Family Legislative Action Guide
- Spouse career resources and relocation information
- Military Spouse Symposia
- MOAA insurance plans

MARKERS:

For older spouse, dwindling support system and burdened or confused by tasks he or she has never had to deal with, like financial matters. In essence, spouses are serving the military alongside their servicemembers and want to be viewed and respected for their tremendous and selfless efforts.

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Advocacy to support surviving spouses
- Publications: Help Your Survivors Now: A Guide to Planning Ahead; Auxiliary Checklist; and Military Officer magazine
- Travel discounts
- MOAA insurance plans
- Community and camaraderie through local chapters

MOAA NEVER STOPS SERVING WELL BEYOND THEIR MILITARY CAREER.

MARKERS:

Have left the military for various reasons: spouse may desire a more stable living environment; officer may have developed negative views of the military; may want to reconnect with family and friends; may have served out a planned amount of time. Interested in the products and services MOAA provides, but less interested in legislation and lobbying efforts as they don’t directly apply to them anymore.

MOAA PROVIDES:

- Advocacy
 - GI Bill training improvements — you have 10 years to use the GI Bill
 - Tax credits for employers to hire veterans
- Career transition services
- Financial guidance
- Travel discounts
- Community and camaraderie through local chapters
